Removal of Joint Owner from Account Affidavit

I, _____ joint owner, am requesting that my name be removed from the following account(s) _____, held in the names of _____ & _____ effective _____ (date).

I certify the following information:

- No checks that I have written on this account are outstanding.
- I have no checks in my possession
- I have no debit cards on this account in my possession
- I have cancelled all automated debits and/or credits in my name to this account

Due to current circumstances, I do not want to be associated with this account now or in the future. I hold the FedFinancial Federal Credit Union, harmless from any responsibility or adverse action by the primary member or myself in complying with my request to be removed from this account. I waive any claims that I may have either now or in the future to any funds on deposit in this/these accounts. I furthermore understand that by removing myself from this account, this does not remove me from any outstanding obligation or liability on any FedFinancial Federal Credit Union loans or Credit Cards.

FedFinancial Federal Credit Union takes no responsibility for any names that are currently printed on the current checks for this account or any checks ordered in the future.

If my name needs to be reinstated on this account in the future, it will be subject to any fees and charges based then on current policies of the credit union.

Joint Signature

Signatures of the above witnessed and verified by Credit Union Employee, or by a Notary Public if mailed to the credit union.
